Hello ! My name is Joan.

I am thrilled to be the new head of Adult Patron Services!

I Started working at the library six years ago.

The first three years were spent in the Children's department. The last three years I worked as Nancy's assistant in Adult Patron Services until her recent retirement.

Outside of the library, I enjoy reading, singing,
bird watching and playing board games
with my family.

Please feel free to reach out with any of your library needs or just stop by my desk to say hi!

MORBID HISTORY
 Presented by award-winning filmmaker LORRISA JULIANUS

Tuesday, March 31st
5pm -7pm

Presented by award-winning filmmaker Lorrissa Julianus

"Because you're just more interesting when you're dead!"

From grand corpse larceny in medieval Venice to the iron coffins popping up in Lincoln Park, this light-hearted presentation takes you around the world with spine-tingling true tales you never learned in history class. Ideal for ages 10+, teens, adults, and seniors. In this year's presentation, Lorrissa covers, among other topics: The bizarre burials of the Habsburg royal family

The terror of Resurrectionists digging up your bones American cemetery history and lore. The morbid truth of the Smithsonian collections

Chicago's largest cemetery, which never really got moved!

Let's go for a walk
